Government of India
Ministry of Rural Development
Department of Rural Development
(Aajeevika Skills Division)

New Delhi, dated 27th February 2014

Notification No.7/2014

Subject: Revised Application form for new projects under Aajeevika Skills-reg.

It is informed to all interested persons and organizations that the application form for projects under Aajeevika Skills Guidelines, 2013 has been updated to reflect the revised ratio of sharing of assistance for each project between Center and State in case of state of Uttarakhand and Himachal Pradesh (i.e. 75:25).

2. All the registered PIAs, who are interested in applying for skill development projects in the State of Uttarakhand and Himachal Pradesh are requested to access the updated application form (at <http://aajeevikaskills.gov.in>—Resources—Application for Aajeevika Skills), fill it diligently and email the same in terms of this Ministry's notification no. 1/2014.

3. It may be noted that any application filed previously by any applicant for project in these two states shall have to be revised and applied afresh to central and State Government for consideration.

4. This notification comes into effect with issue.

5. This has the approval of the competent authority.
